

Welcome to or back to (choose one) the history graduate program.
Hope you had a good summer, and are having a successful fall.

This is the second volume of the HGSN. Anyone with any information to contribute should leave a message with Professor Irving Smith, the new graduate director, or Linda McDonald, the graduate secretary.

Many thanks to Irving Smith, Frank Chalk, Linda McDonald and Peter Deslauriers for the information the provided for this issue. Next issue will be coming out early next term.

DATES TO REMEMBER

Deadlines, deadlines, deadlines

MONEY

- SSHRC Grants

- M.A. Special Scholarship Dec. 1
- Doctoral Fellowship Nov. 3

FCAC Grants

- M.A.
- Ph.D. possibly end of Dec.

Con U. Fellowships

- M.A. Feb. 1
- Ph.D. Feb. 1

see Linda McDonald for memo with more details.

GRADUATING THIS SPRING???

- The deadline to apply for graduation for the Spring of 1983 is . . . January 15, 1983

The Spring 1983 Graduation Application form (give me a break) is now available at the Registrar's Services Department Rm. N107. The Registrar's Office tells us that only those students who have applied by the above date will be considered for graduation and, the deadline will not be extended.

FOR YOUR CALENDAR

events, events, events, events

WINE AND CHEESE PARTY

- don't miss it, see old friends, meet new ones.
all graduate students welcome

- TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 2 5 - 7 p.m. History Lounge - N208

. . . /2 keep reading there is more.

more events, more events

GRADUATE STUDENT COLLOQUIUM - a continuing series

Christopher Dowdall, M.A. Concordia, will speak on:

"Sartre and European Marxism"

Monday, NOVEMBER 15, 8:15 p.m., History Dept. Rm. N-208 coming up next term, more student colloquia and an evening on employment opportunities with some of our history graduate students.

LANGUAGE EXAM - Week of November 1

Anyone who has not yet written the History Language Exam may do so during the week of November 1st between 10:00 - 3:00 Monday to Thursday and between 10:00 - 2:30 on Friday. Those students unable to come during the day may write the exam on Monday evening (Nov. 1) from 6:00 to 8:00. You will be given two hours to do this translation. Please call Linda McDonald (879-5884) to arrange time, language, etc.

NEWS AND INFORMATION

read all about it

JOB HUNTING?? - CEGEP enrolment is up this year. More teachers are needed. People should apply now for next term, as interviews usually begin now and hiring during November and December.

NOW AVAILABLE - a list of all graduate students currently enrolled in history (enclosed)

- a list of all M.A. and Ph.D. theses written in the department since 1971 (ask Linda)

RECENT GRADUATES - Spring 1982 - Gratien ALLAIRE, Ph.D.; Evelyn CHATTERJEE, Ph.D.; Patricia SMITH, M.A.
Fall 1982 - Christopher DOWDALL, M.A.; Gordon
RABCHUK, M.A.

AWARD WINNERS - SSHRC Doctoral Fellowship Renewal - Bettina Bradbury
FCAC Grants - Bettina Bradbury, Peters Deslauriers,
Andrea Levy
Concordia Fellowship - Bettina Bradbury (in name only)
Andrea Levy
Teaching Assistantships - Mike Duckett (Eur), Jack
Jedwab (Can), Emer Killeen (Eur),
Jimmy Manson (Can)
Commonwealth Scholarship - Mohamed Ansari (from Singapore)

GRADUATE STUDENT ENROLMENT - We have a total of 19 new graduate students enrolled this year. Sixteen at the M.A. level and three in the Ph.D. program. The total number of students now enrolled is 79.

NOTES

where they are and what they are doing. . . .

- Congratulations to Paul Wilson (M.A.) and Susan on the birth of their daughter Sara. The Wilsons have just moved to Winnipeg where Paul is working as publications representative for Harper and Row publishers.
- Welcome to Mohammed Ansari of Singapore who has just started to study history here at Concordia.
- Bob Daley (Ph.D.) is currently teaching history at Dawson College - LaFontaine Campus.
- Paul Marion, former student, has just been promoted by the Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce and has moved from their Hong Kong Branch to the Bank's Singapore office.
- Michael Sibalis, former Ph.D. student, is now teaching at Huron College of the University of Western Ontario.
- Danny Fry - M.A. Student and former T.A. here in the Department now has a teaching assistantship in Canadian History for the School of Community and Public Affairs.
- Mary Finnegan (M.A.) that world traveller returned in September from a summer tour of China and Soviet Asia. Mary will probably be happy to give slide shows on request!

- Good-bye to Dave Groeninger and Wendy Rosen. Dave has moved back to Chicago where he will finish his M.A. thesis and move on to bigger and better things.
- Frances Early (former Ph.D. student) is now the eastern Canadian coordinator of the Committee on Women's Studies. This is an inter-disciplinary group involving all those who teach Women's Studies in Canada.
- More congratulations to one of our Department secretaries, Carmen Lorenzin, on the birth of a 7lb. 13oz baby boy.
- Welcome to Donna Whittaker who is replacing Carmen while she is on maternity leave. Donna is also a history student here at Concordia.
- Welcome Back - Professor Norman Cohn who returns to the Department until January under a grant from the SSHRC as Visiting Foreign Research Fellow. See enclosed sheet for information on a lecture series Professor Cohn will be giving.
- Welcome also to Tom Socknat (Ph.D. McMaster), visiting assistant professor in Canadian History.

Interested in the job market - two books to look for next time your in the library

T. Jackson and D. Mayleas - The Hidden Job Market for the Eighties
(New York Times Books, 1981) Call number HF 5381 J36 1981

E. Kocher - International Jobs: Where they are, how to get them - a handbook for 500 career opportunities around the world. (Wesley Publishing Co., 1979) Call number AF 5381 K596

Ah. . . that's all folks.

Louise Johnston